

University of Pretoria in conjunction with the Law Society of South Africa and L.E.A.D

ADVANCED CERTIFICATE IN

Insolvency Litigation and Administration Practice

April 2010 – January 2011

Who should attend?

Legal practitioners who wish to specialise in Insolvency Law. Ideal for practising attorneys/candidate attorneys.

Aim of the course:

To facilitate legal education and development and movement of attorneys into this specialised field of practice.

Starting date:

12 April 2010

LAW SOCIETY OF SOUTH AFRICA

Course fee:

R5 900 including all study material for the course.

Assessment:

Three compulsory assignments, which will make up 50% of the final mark, and one open-book examination in January/February 2011.

Insolvency Litigation:

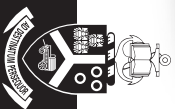

- ▶ sequestration and liquidation applications
- ▶ applications for judicial management
- ▶ section 311 compromises
- ▶ intervening applications
- ▶ appeals and reviews
- ▶ rescinding sequestration and liquidation orders
- ▶ recovery of estate assets
- ▶ obtaining warrants in terms of section 69 of the Insolvency Act
- ▶ litigation regarding un-executed contracts
- ▶ dispositions without value
- ▶ voidable preferences
- ▶ undue preferences
- ▶ collusion
- ▶ rehabilitation applications
- ▶ aspects relating to the Promotion of Access to Information Act
- ▶ the impact of the Constitution on insolvency law

Insolvency Administration:

- ▶ rules regarding the application of the proceeds of securities
- ▶ rules regarding the application of the proceeds of the free residue
- ▶ the proof of claims
- ▶ insolvency interrogations
- ▶ compositions
- ▶ remuneration of trustees and liquidators
- ▶ procedures relating to the drafting and lodging of liquidation and distribution accounts
- ▶ procedures relating to objections against liquidation and distribution accounts
- ▶ the payment and collection of contributions by creditors
- ▶ income tax and VAT implications in insolvent estates
- ▶ review of decisions made by the Master of the High Court

Enquiries and registration:

CE at UP Client Services Centre
Teli: (012) 420 – 5015
Fax: (012) 420 – 5465
E-mail: info.ce@up.ac.za

CONTINUING EDUCATION
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA

www.ceatup.com