

Rode-REIM Real Estate Conference 2014: Thought Leaders in Real Estate Investment and Education

The annual Real Estate Investor Conference will be jointly hosted by Rode and REIM this year and will take place in September in Johannesburg, Cape Town and Durban. Whether you are a beginner or seasoned market participant, Rode and REIM bring together the latest world and SA trends, education and thought leadership on real estate and investment.

*By attending Rode-REIM Real Estate Conference you will learn:

- How the SA and world economies are performing
- Prospects for property in uncertain times
- Which are the best performing markets
- New emerging world trends in the market
- How to invest in these new markets
- A new form of financing real estate
- What the global approach is to real estate investing
- Lessons from sectional title
- How to raise funds and list a company
- How to master new skill sets to differentiate yourself

The events are sponsored by Wealth Migrate.

Johannesburg

To book for the Johannesburg conference, please visit <http://www.rode.co.za/node/5441>.

The annual one-day Rode-REIM Real Estate Conference in Johannesburg will be held on Tuesday, 16 September, at Emperors Palace, Kempton Park.

The 2014 conference will kick off with a presentation by Ettienne le Roux, Chief Economist at Rand Merchant Bank. His topic of discussion will be "Economic prospects".

This will be followed by a presentation entitled "Emerging Trends in Global Real Estate" to be delivered by Dr Dolf de Roos, who is an investor, author, educator, business owner, entrepreneur and president of Wealth Migrate. Dolf has written and published sixteen best-selling property books, including Real Estate Riches.

Next, Amelia Beattie, chief investment officer at Stanlib and President of Sapoa, will take to the stage to share her insights on "Walking the streets of Africa – investment experiences on the Continent", followed by a panel discussion and a tea break.

Neale Petersen, CEO & publisher of REALE MEDIA, will be discussing "New trends from an investor perspective ... the good, the bad and the ugly". Neale's publication, SA Real Estate Investor Magazine, won the SAPOA Property Journalism Award for the best property print publication in 2013.

Neale's talk will be followed by Jacques Magliolo's presentation, "Raising funds via an AltX-listing of your property company". Jacques is the MD of Business Consultants International and author of twelve books, including three university textbooks.

Scott Picken, who is the Senior Managing Partner and CEO of Wealth Migrate and author of Property Going Global, written in association with Clem Sunter, will talk on "The Global Property System™ – your answer to achieving wealth preservation, a plan B and peace of mind by investing in the best markets and opportunities globally, while safely managing risk". Scott's talk will be followed by a panel discussion and lunch.

Les Evans, former CEO of CDC Capital and elite transformational coach to celebrities, top-shelf executives & entrepreneurs wishing to dramatically increase their influence & leadership charisma, will start the afternoon session with his presentation titled "The rainmakers' recipe for investing greatness: How to thrive in adverse markets".

The Johannesburg conference will conclude with well-known property economist and professional valuer Erwin Rode's presentation titled "Prospects for property in uncertain times", followed by a final panel discussion.

Kura Chihota, Host of "Ask the Property Experts", will be the master of ceremonies at both the Johannesburg and Cape Town events.

Cape Town

To book for the Cape Town conference, please visit <http://www.rode.co.za/node/5436>.

The annual one-day Rode-REIM Real Estate Conference in Cape Town will be held on Thursday, 18 September, at Garden Court Nelson Mandela Boulevard, Cape Town.

The conference will start with a presentation by Dr Cees Bruggemans, a consulting economist at Bruggemans & Associates. His topic will be "SA economic prospects 2015".

As with the Johannesburg conference, Dr Dolf de Roos, investor, author, educator, business owner, entrepreneur and president of Wealth Migrate, will deliver his address entitled "Emerging Trends in Global Real Estate".

Next, Len Lowings, Managing Member of L&V Property Services, will present his talk "How we saved a sectional-title slum building in the Cape Town CBD", followed by a panel discussion and a tea break.

Neale Petersen, CEO & publisher of REALE MEDIA, will talk about "New trends from an investor perspective ... the good, the bad and the ugly" and Jacques Magliolo, MD of Business Consultants International, will follow with his presentation titled, "Raising funds via an AltX-listing of your property company".

Scott Picken, Senior Managing Partner and CEO of Wealth Migrate, will share his thoughts on "The Global Property System™ – your answer to achieving wealth preservation, a plan B and peace of mind by investing in the best markets and opportunities globally, while safely managing risk", followed by a panel discussion and lunch.

After lunch, John Rabie, chairman and co-founder of the Rabie Property Group, one of South Africa's leading independent property companies, and CEO of his latest venture company, Signatura, South Africa's first private-label property brand, will talk on "The legendary story of a visionary property developer".

The Cape Town conference will conclude with property economist and professional valuer Erwin Rode's presentation titled "Prospects for property in uncertain times", followed by a final panel discussion.

Breakfast event: Durban

To book for the Durban breakfast, please visit <http://www.rode.co.za/node/5439>.

The breakfast event in Durban will be held on Tuesday, 23 September, at The Gateway Hotel in Umhlanga.

Dr Dolf de Roos, investor, author, educator, business owner, entrepreneur and president of Wealth Migrate, will start the event with a talk titled "Emerging trends in global real estate", followed by Nicky Weimar, senior economist at Nedbank, who will deliver a presentation titled "Review of fundamentals driving the home loan market".

Lastly, Erwin Rode, CEO of Rode & Associates, will give his presentation titled "Prospects for property in uncertain times". The Durban breakfast will conclude with a panel discussion.

Neale Petersen, CEO & publisher of REALE MEDIA, will be the master of ceremonies and Scott Picken, Senior Managing Partner and CEO of Wealth Migrate will welcome delegates to the breakfast event.

Bookings and Enquiries

As these events are always popular and well attended, we would advise interested parties to book early to secure their place at any of the events. For further enquiries and bookings, please visit www.rode.co.za or www.reimag.co.za. Alternatively, please contact Lynette Smit on lynette@rode.co.za or on 012 664 4159 / 082 323 5799.