Top speakers at SA's first Social Justice Conference

Former Public Protector Prof Thuli Madonsela and Judge John Hlophe, the Judge President of the High Court of Cape Town, will be delivering keynote addresses at South Africa's first Social Justice Conference. The conference is part of a groundswell of support for mediation and other alternative forms of dispute resolution, which is making justice more affordable and accessible to many South Africans.

The conference will be of interest to both professionals and private citizens who would like to be peace makers or who have an interest to find out more about alternative ways of resolving conflict.

Media are invited to attend the opening and/or closing sessions of the conference:

Dates and times:

Tuesday, 6 March 2018 at 8.40 to 9.15 - Keynote by Judge President John Hlophe

Wednesday, 7 March 2018 at 15.00 to 16.00 – Closing address by Prof Thuli Madonsela
